What Makes the Home?

Not the house, however fine it may be; not the furniture, pictures and appointments. The wife and mother makes the home, and to speak of going home means to go back into the shelter of the mother's love and care.

And when womanly home-life suffers, the food is not cooked as she cooks it. Everywhere the lack of wife supervision and motherly thoughtfulness is apparent. What a change, then, when this wife and mother comes back to take her old place in the family. Thousands of women who, because of womanly ills, had been shut out of home life and home happiness, have been enabled to once more take their place in the family after being cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

A BEAUTIFUL TRIBUTE

A Gem From Senator Vest--What the Power of Eloquence Will do With a Jury.

One of the most beautiful tributes ever paid to a dog was delivered by Senator Vest, of Missouri, a few years ago. He was attending court in a country town, and while waiting for the trial of a case in which he was interested, he was urged by the attorneys in a dog case to help them. He was paid a fee of $250 by the plaintiff. Voluminous evidence was introduced to show that the plaintiff had shot the dog in malice, while other evidence went to show that the dog had attacked the defendant. Vest took no part in the trial, and was not disposed to speak. The attorneys, however, urged him to make a speech, or else they would think he had not earned his fee. Being thus urged, he arose, scanned the face of each jurymen, and said:

"Gentlemen of the jury:--The best friend a man has in the world may be his dog. His son or daughter, that he has reared with loving care, may prove ungrateful. Those who are dear to us, those whom we trust with our happiness and our good name, may become traitors to their faith. The money that a man has he may lose. It flies away from him when he needs it most. A man's reputation may be sacrificed in a moment of ill consideration. Those who are proud to fall on their knees to do us honor when success is with us, may be the first to throw the stone of malice, when failure settles its clouds upon our heads. The one absolutely necessary and useful friend that a man can have in this world, the one that never deserts him, the one that never proves ungrateful or treacherous, is the dog. A man's dog stands by him in poverty, in health and in sickness. He will sleep on the cold ground, where the wintry winds blow and the snow drives fiercely, if only he may be near his master's side. He will kiss the hand that has no food to offer; he will lick the sores and wounds that come to encounter with the roughness of this world. He guards the sleep of a pauper master as if he were a prince. When all other friends desert, he remains. When riches take wings and reputation falls to pieces, he is as constant in his love as the sun in its journey through the heavens. If fortune drives the master forth an outcast in the world, friendless and homeless, the faithful dog asks no higher privilege than that of accompanying him to gnarl against danger, to fight against his enemies, and when the last scene of all comes, and death takes the master in his embrace, and his body is laid away in the cold ground, no matter if all other friends pursue their way, there by the grave will his noble dog be found, he will lie between his paws, his eyes sad, but upon in alert watchfulness, faithful and true even in death."

Then Vest sat down. He had spoken in a low voice, without a gesture. He made no reference to the evidence or the merits of the case. When he finished judge and jury were wiping their eyes. The jury filed out but soon entered with a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $500. He had sued for $250. It is even said that some of the jurors wanted to hang the defendant.

A Good Cough Medicine.
It speaks well for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy when druggists use it in their own families in preference to any other. "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past five years with complete satisfaction to myself and customers," says Druggist J. Goldsmith, Van Etten, N. Y. "I have always used it in my own family both for ordinary coughs and colds and for the cough following la grippe, and find it very efficacious." For sale by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

Sixth Blackberry Winter.
Up to date we have had just six "blackberry winters" this spring. It is not known even to the best authority on blackberry winters just how many more we shall have.

Unnecessary Loss of Time.
Mr. W. S. Whedon, Cashier of the First National Bank of Winteret, Iowa, in a recent letter gives some experience with a carpenter in his employ, that will be of value to other mechanics. He says: "I had a carpenter working for me who was obliged to stop work for several days on account of being troubled with diarrhoea. I mentioned to him that I had been similarly troubled and that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy had cured me. He bought a bottle of it from the druggist here and informed me that one dose cured him and he is again at his work." For sale by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

A Law to Make People Honest.
Last December the city council of Chicago passed an ordinance compelling log people to be honest in their dealings and a commission was appointed to detect and punish violators of the ordinance. Since that time the Official Tester reports that he has condemned and destroyed nearly 10,000 false and illegal weights, measures and scales. Many of these were made intentionally short. Milk bottles are once shriveled to the quart in general use and this item alone was costing the people $1,500 a day in Chicago. Coal measures, grocer's measures and all kinds of baskets, butter moulds and other contrivances were found to be designed to defraud the unwary. Detectives were sent out to watch coal delivery men and they were caught selling coal intended for customers and a regular traffic of this sort was broken up. Scales were furnished to customers to weigh meat, ice and other supplies sent to them, and report all shortages. The ordinance has been of great benefit to the poor especially, as the rich who buy in whole barrels and other large quantities, do not suffer so much from dishonest methods. It would not be a bad idea for all cities to adopt this Chicago plan of watching people to make them honest.

The Newspaper Can be a Power For Good When it is Rightly Directed

It is a growing feeling among both newspaper readers and thoughtful editors that it has become an increasing practice to give too broad a place to that which is trivial, if not immoral. A lively man's girl elopes with a stable boy and the incident is telegraphed around the world and given a column not alone in each of the "yellow journals," but in the best and most conservative papers; while a thousand things that concern hundreds of people and that are entertaining, instructive and helpful are crowded out. Of course the yellow journals will scatter the column about the elopement in broken columns over two or more pages, print scare heads and give pictures of the boy and girl, of the stable where he worked and the horses he carried, with a cut of the curlycomb used, and follow with a picture of the girl's parents, brothers and sisters, and of the house where they live and of the flat where the girl is to live; and will run interviews with the whole family day by day for a week, unless crowded for room in which to give accounts, with nattering details of all sorts of foal immunities, stale and filthy crimes. There is a world of good in a newspaper, but there is vast room for improvement. If the slums, the bawdy-house districts, the haunts of drunkenness and fifth are to be raked over every day to give, to illustrate, dwell upon and roll over as sweet morsels of news, all the old filthy crimes, lilies and nastiness of beasts in human form, it is high time that public sentiment were aroused before incurable moral leprosy seizes upon all conditions of men and women. There should be a tremendous move for purity, accuracy, honesty and instructiveness in newspapers. Hopkinsville Daily New Era.

HIS LIFE SAVED
By Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"I am sure that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at one time saved my life," says A. E. Laflette, of Gregory Landing Clark county, Missouri. "I was in such bad shape that the doctors said I could not live. When I was at the lowest ebb, one of my neighbors brought in a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and I took it and got instant relief. I soon got up and around. That was nine years ago and I am still in good health. Since then that medicine has always been in my house and always will be. It is the best on earth." For sale by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

Reflections of a Bachelor.
Some men are fortunate; others are only lucky.

A woman may have some sense and not have any sense of humor, but no woman can have a sense of humor and not have any sense.

Probably women invented skirts so they could make their feet look smaller by having the heels of their shoes put way up under their insteps.

There was probably a lot of scandal before the flood, because the women could trace Noah's family back to Eve and nobody knew who Eve's father was.

There are three habits that no amount of treatment will ever cure a woman of when she once gets them. The gett habit, the twin habit and the bare neck photograph habit.

A wicked man is bound to get this as a successful actress is to get fat.

Some women dress just as much to worry the men as they do to please them.

Half the time when a girl flirts with a man it is only to make another man mad that has been flirting with her.

Before a man is allowed to ask for a woman's hand he ought to be made to look at it for 15 minutes through a telescope.

The woman who will tie a light pink satin ribbon around the neck of a bow-legged, cross-eyed, hang lipped bulldog ought to be sent to a sanitarium. --New York Press.

TO THE WOMEN OF THE UNITED STATES.

DR. S. B. HARTMAN.
In view of the great multitude of women suffering from some kind of female disease, and yet unable to find any cure, Dr. Hartman, the renowned gynecologist, has announced his willingness to direct the treatment of as many cases as may make application to him during the summer months without charge.

The treatment will be conducted by correspondence. The doctor will prescribe all medicines, applications, hygienic and dietary regulations necessary to complete a cure. The medicines prescribed can be obtained at all drug stores. This offer will hold good only during the summer months. Any woman can become a regular patient by sending a written statement of her age, condition of life, history and symptoms of her derangements.

All cases of female diseases, including menstrual irregularities, displacements, ulcerations, inflammations, discharges, irritation of the ovaries, tumors and dropsy of the abdomen, should apply at once and become registered as regular patients. All correspondence will be held strictly confidential. No testimonials of cures will be given to the public except by the express wish of the patient.

As is well known, Dr. Hartman is the President of the Hartman Sanitarium, an institution which has a department devoted exclusively to the treatment of female diseases. He is thus brought to see thousands of such cases every year, the most of whom return to their homes to be treated by correspondence. The principal remedy he relies upon in such cases is Peruna, which every woman should have, who has any affection of this kind. Those wishing to become patients should address Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio.

No one knows better than Dr. Hartman how much the women suffer with diseases peculiar to their sex. No one knows better than he does how many of them suffer with such diseases. Patiently, hopefully, wearily, and often silently, they eke out a miserable existence year after year.

A woman confined to the house several years with a chronic female derangement had finally given up all hope of being cured. She had tried physician after physician, and remedy after remedy, without any permanent improvement. Her treatment had cost her husband, who was a poor man, hundreds of dollars. They had been obliged to deny themselves many comforts of life in order to get money enough to pay the physician.

Picking up the paper one day she happened to read an item which contained the news that Dr. Hartman would treat such cases free of charge by letter. She immediately wrote the doctor, describing her case, and giving him all her symptoms. She soon received a letter telling her exactly what to do and what medicines and appliances to get. She began the treatment (the principal remedy being Peruna) at once, and in a few weeks was well and strong again and able to do her own work.

Another woman who used Peruna without becoming one of Dr. Hartman's regular patients had the following experience. Miss Ida Green writes from Baldwinville, Ga.: "Peruna is wonderful and good, and a certain cure for female weakness. I have been ill and have been taking doctor's medicine for several years, and found that none did me any good."

"Every day it was a worry. I was always sick. I had come to the conclusion to give up, and not use any more medicine. I was sick indeed for the past two years. Just before I began to take Peruna I was very weak, besides I was bilious and constipated."

"I had pains in my back and side and falling of the womb, with bearing down pains."

"One day while reading my newspaper, I came across an ad. read of the book for women entitled, 'Health and Beauty,' and sent for it. Then I began to use the medicine. After using several bottles I am now thoroughly cured."

Send for free book, entitled, 'Health and Beauty.' Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio.

VARICOCELE & STRICTURE
No other disease is so prevalent among men as Varicocele. As it interferes with the nutrition of the sexual organs it produces emaciation, loss of semen, through the urine, decay of the organs, pain in the loins, aching in the back, nervousness, dizziness, headache, palpitation of the heart, constipation, and a combination of these results in complete loss of manhood. Thousands of young and middle-aged men are troubled with Stricture. If you have reason to believe you are afflicted with it, don't neglect it. It will ruin you. Don't let doctors experiment on you by cutting, stretching or tearing it. Our New Method Treatment dissolves the stricture tissue hence it disappears and can never return. We cure Varicocele and Stricture without operation or loss of time. The treatment may be taken at home privately. Send for our Free Illustrated Book on Varicocele, Stricture and Gleet. Our New Method Treatment is guaranteed to cure any disease of these organs or no pay.

No Names Used Without Written Consent.
O. W. Rowe, of Jackson, Mich., writes: "I had varicocele in the secondary stage and a stricture of 5 years standing. The stricture was dissolved in six weeks, the stricture tissue was removed in eight weeks and my sexual energy and vitality returned and I was a man in every respect. I recommend you doctors with my whole heart. CURES GUARANTEED. NO CURE NO PAY."

BRITAIN has sustained another reverse at the hands of the Boers. Yet they have been conquered for the last six months.

THE courts in Louisville would rid the city of gamblers, but Beckham would not and so it goes. Criminals believe in protection.

If nature had buried inexhaustible fountains of liquors in the bowels of the earth, would man have accepted nature's gift or would he have made coal oil for his stimulating beverage?

Is Ohio county for sale? From what we have been able to glean from the boastful spies, of the Democratic county ticket, they think so at least, for they make much ado about the capacity of their ticket for raising a large corruption fund.

As much as the Democratic brethren are boasting of their money bag candidate, it would be nothing but right for the public to learn just how all this fortune has been amassed in so short a time. All this will reach the public a little later on through THE REPUBLICAN.

THERE are many plans for reorganizing the Democratic party as there are Democrats—most. We might offer a timely suggestion, that when they meet to reorganize, they should amend their present character to read: "We will, henceforth, abide by the will of the people as expressed at the polls."

COL. HENRI WATSON is again clamoring for the reorganization of the Democratic party and the advent of a new leader—Bryan is entirely slow for the times and Henri. If success in national affairs is so much demanded, Henri might advocate the adoption of an election law governing national elections, that would "remove every element of chance from the result of the election."

THE man who resigns his office just because he has a political grudge against some one, and wants to vent his spleen on the stump, to the misfortune of a State, ought not to have office at all, and we have some doubts whether a State is worthy of statehood, that would own such old "scabs."

THE Democracy of Ohio county has been favored very kindly by the propitious fates, in endowing its leaders with money and brains, and its candidates with the power and privilege of "carrying the votes of their fellowman in their vest pockets," an inheritance that bespeaks honor for the fortunate.

No one doubted but what Mr. Bryan would impeach and overrule the decision of the Supreme Court, but what does it amount to any way? It is just Bryan and that's all. No one need be surprised. Mr. Bryan has many weary dreams. He, poor fellow, sees calamity and ruin in every action of the administration.

A Christian county jury finds the deputies who fired into marching miners guilty of manslaughter and sends three of them to the pen for two years each. The trouble came up between union and non-union men and the sheriff played too free a hand. The miners were organizing for self-protection, which they have a right to do. Instead of two years the verdict ought to have been five or ten.

The Supreme Court is coming in for its part of censure from the third and fourth class newspapers of the country, including the Commoner, edited by the calamity prophet. This abuse is due to the decision of the Court in upholding the administration in its relations toward the islands. Calamity breeders were expected to call forth the gods of damnation upon the heads of this great tribune and they have disappointed no one.

SINCE the election of Mr. Alvin S. Bennett to the office of Representative is a dead moral certainty, he is asked by some little jackals, if he will support this or that man for the U. S. Senate. Mr. Bennett will support no man that favored the Goebel law or that infamous contest, but instead, will support a gentleman who believes in the sanctity of the ballot, and a free and fair count.

Gov. McSWANEY, of South Carolina, has declined to accept the resignations of Senators McLaurin and Tillman. McLaurin submits to the Governor's decision, but the pitchfork orator finds fault with Gov. McSwaney and is much given to charade. The governor held that the people of South Carolina were entitled to one year of peace from political strife and on this ground declined to accept the resignations.

THE grand jury is in session at Hopkinsville and will doubtless air the asylum scandal. It is highly important that it should, for as it is, the State stands in the column of the disgraced. The institution which was dedicated by the State to be the home of purity for the unfortunate, has become a den for the iniquities of the degenerate. It is certainly time for Hopkinsville to do something.

THE REPUBLICAN does not understand where the editor of the Evening Post got his authority to advise the Republican party, and yet he is the most persistent fellow in his effort to force the Republicans to allow him to lead them, advise them and counsel them in the State. He heads his editorial column with the phrase, "Democratic Newspaper," and still he cusses the Democrats on one hand, while he damns the Republicans on the other. Say, brother, please tell us where you are "at" before advising too freely.

THE REPUBLICAN is a friend of the old veterans of the '60's and its efforts shall be in advancing every effort of one of that band. We do not like to see the band of old gray heads imposed upon by one, who denounced them when it was popular to do so, and charged one of the best and most honorable soldiers as being a "Yankee." This same fellow is telling the soldier boys that he was a soldier and merits their votes by reason of this fact. Be not deceived, soldier friends, this fellow was only a camp follower; a stragler, his name is not enrolled upon any record book and because he could not be given an office in the army, refused to do battle for his country. Be not deceived, lest you rue it.

It is quite fortunate for any man to have the complete confidence of his fellowman, but it is more fortunate for him to carry their votes around in his vest pocket when he is wanting to be elected to the office of County Court Clerk. Some years ago, Mr. Smith, the present Democratic candidate for County Clerk, in his own estimation, stood very high in the hearts of his neighbors in Bartlett's. So great was he elated, he openly boasted that he carried the votes of Bartlett's in his vest pocket. This bigotry will not be allowed to abide long, for the voters of Bartlett's and Ohio county are free thinkers and believe in exercising that free moral agency, which God has given them—free from the influence of any man.

We shall be slow to believe that Mr. Smith carries a single man's vote in his "vest pocket," save his own.

THE question is asked the voters of Ohio county: "If prospects for Republican victory were never so flattering in all the history of the party as this year in Ohio county, why is it necessary that a time-tried Republican should come out in a card to notify the public that he is not going to vote the Democratic ticket?" It is necessary because another "A. G. Benton" has appeared with a gangrenous falsehood in his mouth, parading round about that certain influential Republicans were going to support a man who "carried the peoples' votes around in his vest pocket." This question refers to Mr. Sanford Brown's letter, which appeared in last week's REPUBLICAN. Mr. Brown felt that some demagogue was doing him a great injustice by circulating the report that he was for Tom Smith for Clerk, instead of Mr. Ragland. These "A. G. Bentons" need their throats cut occasionally, and Mr. Brown happened to strike one of the little devils in a tender place, and he "squealed."

Breckinridge on Senator Carmack

We pity Senator Carmack of Tennessee and we still more pity Tennessee. Mr. Carmack was a very accomplished and successful editorial writer—brilliant, scholarly, sarcastic, attractive. He won no foes, he added nothing to the strength of his party. He drove voters from his party and estranged many from his side. But he made warm friends and admirers scored his enemies, said smart and bitter things, "took the hide off" of those he attacked and generally made the reputation of a brilliant and severe editor. He was also a brilliant orator; attractive and eloquent on the stump, scholarly and bitter on the floor of Congress. He is also a cultivated, courteous and pleasant gentleman. He has the abilities which directed and controlled by wisdom can do his State great service. But he has always catered to the extreme wing of his party. He leads that wing which needs no leading, but needs to be restrained. He is turbulent inside his party and aggressive against his party associates who are not willing to be ultra. He wins promotion by being an extremist and rallying the extremists to his colors. He is the modern wigwag with hardly as wonderful a gift of speech and not an equal power of biting sarcasm. He is the imitator of Keith, Preston, Brooks and those who drove moderate, conservative Democrats out of public life and were quick to denounce such Democrats as dough faces, traitors, cowards. Such men never won a vote for their party; never led it to victory. The South was cursed with many such leaders before the war, after the war and now. Some of them were extraordinary men in intellectual gifts, in graceful scholarship; in winning eloquence, in courteous personal manners and address. They were men of high birth, of easy fortune, of accomplished education, of lovable private life. But they were no wiser than Phaeton and drove the horses of the sun to disaster. Mr. Carmack belongs to this class of leaders; and in those antebellum days he would have ranked among the most delightful of them. He is now an anachronism—if he will not take this as an opprobrious epithet—we mean with the utmost respect. He is as much out of harmony with his times as would be Alcibiades if he were to return and become Senator from Tennessee. And when he permits himself to say the Supreme Court is "the decay spot" in our system, he makes himself somewhat of a laughing stock in the sight of the American people. He could hardly have chosen a more unfortunate and inappropriate phrase. Of all the departments this august court has preserved its pristine vigor, its ancient renown, its historic power. Surely it has shown no sign of decay in its recent judgments. It has upheld its claim to supreme judicial power with the right to declare all laws and the acts of all officers constitutional and otherwise; and there has been no unbending in its virile dignity and lofty bearing. There has been no decay in its accustomed erudition, in the width and accuracy of its learning; in the acumen and strength of its reasoning; in the culture exhibited in its opinions. The decay has not been in the court or in its members.

Surely there has been no decay in the claims it has made; in the constancy with which those claims have been urged and the resolute and dignified manner in which they have been enforced. To-day it is the most powerful judicial tribunal in the world—it is unique in its jurisdiction and without a parallel in the scope of its jurisdiction. Mr. Carmack cannot hope to rival Senator Tillman in the coarseness of his invective for equal Mr. Bryan in the looseness of his criticisms. Mr. Carmack is a gentleman and a scholar and such violent rhodomontade does not comport with his gifts, his culture or his manners. Mr. Carmack is the successor of Hugh White, of Andrew Jackson, or Isham Harris, of Hopewell Jackson, and others as brilliant; he represents the State of Polk; and is it not an act of true friendship to recall to his remembrance that the country will measure him as they read these utterances by the standard of those immortal Tennesseans? Senator Carmack—be advised—the next time think before you talk. —Lexington Herald.

CONVICTED.

HOPKINS COUNTY DEPUTIES SENTENCED

Jury Returns Verdict After a Long Deliberation.

GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER.

MADISONVILLE, Ky., June 2.—After a deliberation which lasted 20 hours, the jury in whose hands rested the fate of Deputy Sheriff Liddle and his possemen, Johnson, McIntosh and Penol, charged with killing marching miners, brought in a verdict declaring Liddle, Johnson and McIntosh, guilty of manslaughter and fixing their punishment at two years in the State penitentiary. Penol was dismissed, there being no proof to show he was present when the killing took place. The verdict was a surprise, as it was generally thought there would be a hung jury. Commonwealth's Attorney Gray was the only one of the attorneys for the prosecution who seemed confident of a conviction.

A motion will be made for a new trial. Liddle, who had heretofore showed a stolid indifference throughout the trial, broke down this afternoon and wept, declaring he was innocent. His wife, who had been with him all through the trial, was not present when the verdict was read. Much sympathy is expressed for her and her five children.

The attorneys for the prosecution express themselves as being satisfied, while the attorneys for the defense say the evidence did not warrant conviction. All the lawyers commend Judge T. J. Nunn, before whom the case was tried.

The majority of the attorneys, who have been here for some time, have gone to Princeton where Judge Nunn will hear arguments on the motion to dissolve the injunction issued against union miners and operators.

Sad Tragedy.

A sad tragedy occurred at Bennetts-town Saturday, in which Rudolph Killebrew, aged eleven years was shot and killed by Walter Hampton, aged twelve. From the evidence brought out before the coroner's jury the deed seems to have been wanton. There was only one eye witness to the deplorable tragedy—the nine-year-old brother of the deceased, Sherman Killebrew. He testified before the jury that he and his brother had gone to Walter Hampton's house and asked him to go with them to hunt wild strawberries. The three started down the road and had gone but a few yards when Hampton asked that they wait for him a few minutes, as he had forgotten something at the house. When he returned he had a pistol in his hand, which he aimed at Rudolph, and without a word, he fired, his victim falling dead with a bullet in the heart.

Annie Crimes, colored, testified that she had seen Hampton frequently with the pistol, which he had shot it in the yard. J. M. Brame testified that about three quarters of an hour after the killing he found the dead child, face downward in the road in a pool of blood and turned the body over and wiped the blood from its face. Horace Moss, another witness, made practically the same statement as Brame. The following verdict was returned by the coroner's jury:

"We the jury summoned and sworn by the coroner of Christian county, to look into the cause of the death of Rudolph Killebrew aged eleven years, find from the evidence that he came to his death from pistol shot in the hands of Walter Hampton, the ball taking effect just over the nipple of the left breast. We further find that the shooting was done intentionally, June 1, 1911, about 4 o'clock p. m., near Bennetts-town."

Coroner Allenworth, who held the inquest, Sunday morning, made an effort to arrest Hampton, but the lad had run away and could not be found. Officers are on the track and he will no doubt soon be captured.—Hopkinsville Independent.

BAD BLOOD, BAD COMPLEXION.

The skin is the seat of an almost endless variety of diseases. They are known by various names, but are all due to the same cause, acid and other poisons in the blood that irritate and interfere with the proper action of the skin.

To have a smooth, soft skin, free from all eruptions, the blood must be kept pure and healthy. The many preparations of arsenic and potash and the large number of face powders and lotions generally used in this class of diseases cover up for a short time, but cannot remove permanently the ugly blotches and the red, disfiguring pimples.

Eternal vigilance is the price of a beautiful complexion

When such remedies are relied on, Mr. H. T. Shoy, 374 Lucas Avenue, St. Louis, Mo., says: "My daughter was afflicted for years with a disfiguring eruption on her face, which resisted all treatment. She was taken to two physicians and prescribed, but without result, until we decided to try S. S. S. and by the time the first bottle was finished the eruption began to disappear. A dozen bottles cured her completely and left her skin perfectly smooth. She is now seventeen years old, and a sign of the disfiguring disease has never returned."

S. S. S. is a positive, unfailing cure for the worst forms of skin troubles. It is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and the only one guaranteed purely vegetable. Bad blood makes bad complexions. It purifies and invigorates the old and makes new, rich blood that nourishes the body and keeps the skin active and healthy and in proper condition to perform its part towards carrying off the impurities from the body. If you have Eczema, Tetter, Acne, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, or your skin is rough and pimply, send for our book on Blood and Skin Diseases and write our physicians about your case. No charge whatever for this service.

The farmers now should arrange as to how

About the good candidate's hash, For he's sure to come as our best chum When he starts out making a mash.

It is nearly time, not in rhyme nor in rhyme.

But for grasping the rustic hand.

They'll tell us all, both the great and the small

To be loyal to our party man.

Wherever we go both the high and the low,

We'll be filled with their wily deceit. They'll know us at home, or wherever we roam.

Except at the county seat.

They'll know every one and exactly whose son

From his great-great-grandfather down;

But, alas! when elected, their memories grow faint.

If we know it is right to think they are bright,

And refrain from treating them cool, But it's pleasant to muse o'er the joke at ruse,

As to which of the twins is the fool. Though the custom is old it is unlike go d,

And its value pays scarce for a frown. For the kindness tendered them at our homes,

They point us the hotel at town.

Though I say it in fun when the voting is done,

The fact is about like this: Of our good will they have had their fill.

Whenever they run out of gris.

With a conscience bright they'll talk to us right,

But watch how they play us the trick. My friend you know with me you should go.

But my wife she says she is sick.

The writer's views in this paper of news,

You'll find as cross as two ticks. For it certainly pays to vote to h ways

And watch out for campaign tricks.

Card of Thanks.

Sometime ago I announced myself as a candidate for magistrate in the Cromwell Magisterial District, subject to the action of the Republican party. Since that time I understand Mr. Luther Rogers is a candidate for Magistrate. Knowing Mr. Rogers to be an elder man and well qualified for the office, living near the center of the district, I have consulted with my friends as to the best way and taking into consideration the interest of my party, as well as my own interest, I have decided to withdraw from the race. Thanking my friends for the interest they have shown, asking them to be loyal to Mr. Rogers and the entire ticket. Thinking our ticket could not be excelled,

I am yours truly,

Says He Still Belongs to Uncle Sam and is Not a Deserter--The Report False.

Ft. Leavenworth, Kans., Mar. 31. 01

Dear readers—It has been reported in your town and community that I was a deserter from the U. S. Army. It has already been corrected in a former issue of THE REPUBLICAN, but I wish to say a few words, that you may know that I am still a soldier boy and will be until properly discharged. I do not know how the report started, but it was the fault of some one in the fort and not in Hartford. I have never had any desire or intentions of deserting, for I am well pleased and am in the finest cavalry posts in the United States.

We have a riding school here for the purpose of teaching the boys how to ride and to cut monkey shines on horseback. The riding hall is 250 feet by 200 feet, and we are made to lead our horses in the hall and mount them bareback, tie up the reins sit up erect told our arms and gallop all around the hall. Sometimes a fellow falls off but that doesn't amount to much for he is not hurt, and is soon on again, for the horses are well trained and will not hurt you. We are also taught to gallop our horses along and pick up our hat or any thing that is easily carried and to dismount and mount without checking the horse.

We have a fine library here and every one is welcome to use it so long as they return the books.

We will be at St. Louis the 15th of June and will stay there three months, and likely go to New Mexico.

I write this short so-called letter, just to let my friends know that I still belong to Uncle Sam.

Yours respy,

ALBERT S. RALPH,

A Religious Fanatic.

New York, June 4.—A dispatch from Rome says:

While the pope was at work in his private room a fanatic made his way to the ante room and shouted:

"The pope is dead. I am his successor. Give me the crown."

The noble guards on duty seized the intruder and prevented him from penetrating to the pope's chamber. But the holy father had heard the shout. He ordered the man to be arrested. He turned out to be Valentino Paterno, a religious fanatic.

He was taken to a lunatic asylum. How he passed the gatekeepers, guards and u-hers all the way from the outer gate to the Vatican to the very door of the pope's room is a mystery yet unexplained.

WAPPELLA, ILL.

June 3.—Some of your readers might like to hear from this part of the country, as this is a great corn and oat land. Oats look very well, there was the usual crop seeded, but on account of bad seed in some localities, part of the oat crop was plowed under and put in corn, but that was a very light per cent of the crop. The bad seed was oats that were threshed after the rains last harvest.

Corn planting is a thing of the past, those that had not finished before, finished last week. Mr. John Beat, south of town, told me Saturday morning that he would finish Saturday, he liked about fifteen acres being done at that time. That would not sound to some of your reader like he would finish
